

ABANDON SIEGE OF MAFeking

Boers Said to Have Withdrawn Their Forces to Klerksdorp.

BATTLE AT HOUT NEK

Roberts Reports that Hamilton Inflicted Great Damage to the Transvaal Forces.

BOER COMMISSIONERS COMING

London, May 3.—[Special Cablegram]—The Central News hears that Commandant Eloff has left Mafeking, practically abandoning the siege. A Mafeking official dispatch says that General Snyman, conducting the siege for the Boers, left that vicinity. Kimberley, May 3.—[Special Cablegram]—The report is current here this morning that the Boer forces have abandoned the siege of Mafeking. The burghers, who have so long surrounded Mafeking, are said to be on the road to Klerksdorp, bag and baggage.

Hard Fight at Hout Nek. London, May 3.—[Special Cablegram]—Gen. Roberts reports: "Hamilton met with considerable success yesterday and drove the enemy out of a strong position at Hout Nek with comparatively small loss to us. The Boers left twenty-six prisoners in our hands, including a commandant and sixteen wounded. Hamilton is now encamped at Jacobs Rus and as the men need rest, ordered a halt for today."

"Broadwood's cavalry arrived at the scene in time to render valuable assistance. The enemy admits having twelve men killed in yesterday's engagement, including a German Lieutenant Guenther, and forty wounded, including a Russian commander Maximoff. Twenty-one of the fifty-three casualties on the Boer side belonged to the foreign legion. Two Frenchmen were also killed."

Boer Side of the War. Pretoria, May 3.—[Special Cablegram]—An official bulletin says on April 28th, the federal forces took nine prisoners east of Thabanchu. April 30th, the Boers attacked a British corps from Brandfort and killed nineteen British including Captain Liddy. Eleven prisoners were taken. Two federals were wounded.

Total British Losses in Africa. London, May 3.—[Special Cablegram]—The war office announces the total casualties sustained by the British army in South Africa to April 28th, an aggregate of 16,888. Of this number 1,116 are officers.

Coming to the United States. Rotterdam, May 3.—[Special Cablegram]—The Boer peace commissioners sailed for the United States today on the steamer Maandam.

An American Implicated. Pretoria, May 3.—[Special Cablegram]—John Begbie, arrested in connection with the explosion in the Begbie shell factory at Johannesburg has been remanded. An American has also been arrested on suspicion of being implicated.

RELIEF OF MAFeking POSSIBLE

Gen. Carrington Starts to Move in That Direction.

London, May 3.—General Carrington has arrived at Inarandellas, and it is expected his movement for the relief of Mafeking will begin immediately. There is no official confirmation yet as to the advance from the south to help Baden-Powell. Colonel Plumer, it is reported, will make another attempt to reach the besieged town. He recently tried to get some cattle into Mafeking, but the attempt failed, the animals being shot down and the native cattle drivers killed. The wounded, one report says, were afterwards butchered by the Boers. One message from Mafeking, dated as late as April 20, states that all are well, but another says rations have again been reduced. The Boers claim a great victory at Warrenton, which included the capture of 2,000 British, but none of the British reports has made any mention of such an engagement.

Douglas Story wires the Daily Mail from Pretoria that all British subjects except those especially recommended by local committees, have been ordered to leave the republic within thirty-six hours.

ST. LOUIS WAITING TO WELCOME DEWEY

The Admiral Was Given a Warm Reception at Jacksonville, Ill., This Afternoon.

Chicago, May 3.—Admiral Dewey left Chicago this morning over the Chicago & Alton Road for Jacksonville and St. Louis. He will meet the state G. A. R. at the former place and be entertained there. The train schedule arranged by the Alton is: 8:00 a. m., leave Chicago; 11:20 a. m., at Bloomington; 1:30 p. m., at Jacksonville; 4:00 p. m., leave Jacksonville; 6:45 p. m., at St. Louis.

Jackonsville In Gala Attire.

Jacksonville, Ill., May 3.—[Special Telegram]—Fifty thousand visitors swelled Jacksonville's population: when clamorous welcome was given Admiral Dewey this afternoon. Of those 1,000 were members of the Illinois department of the G. A. R., under whose auspices the hero of Manila came to this city. The parade in his honor was the biggest event of its kind in Jacksonville's history, and the citizens and Grand Army leaders spared no efforts to make it the unequalled success which it undoubtedly was.

Admiral Dewey arrived at 1:30 o'clock and will stay here about four hours. The parade started as quickly as possible after his arrival, and was revised by him. Buildings along the line of march were lavishly decorated.

RAPID SPREAD OF BUBONIC PLAGUE

The Dread Disease Seems to be Gathering Force in All Parts of the World.

London, May 3.—Telegrams to London papers continue to show the remarkable spread of the bubonic plague in at least a dozen parts of the world.

In Bombay the epidemic has become serious and is spreading. In Calcutta the same condition exists.

At Port Said there have been two deaths and the plague is spreading. At Teheran, Persia, since the outbreak of the plague there have been 200 deaths but the violence of the epidemic has been modified recently.

In Manila from twenty to thirty deaths daily are reported.

At Hong Kong there have been fifty-two fresh cases in a fortnight and ninety-eight deaths since the beginning of the year.

At Melbourne two new cases are reported.

At Sydney 188 cases and fifty-four deaths have been reported. The Mayor is paying 12 cents a head for rats, which are believed to cause the spread of the disease.

In Noumea, New Caledonia, the plague is raging, and there have been 238 deaths.

At Brisbane there have been three cases; at Perth one death; Auckland the same.

In Buenos Ayres the plague has been raging since the middle of March, and there have been forty deaths in two months.

Wants Divorce and $500,000. New York, May 3.—The courts will solve the Pullman mystery. Through his attorneys Frederick V. Bowers has begun suit against his wife for absolute divorce on statutory grounds, naming George M. Pullman as co-respondent. Mr. Bowers also instituted an action to recover $500,000 from the son of the late multimillionaire palace car magnate for the alleged alienation of his wife's affections. Both suits are brought in the Supreme court of this state.

Pullman and Mrs. Bowers have been served with the papers in the case. They accepted service quite complacently. Mrs. Bowers thanked the young man who handed her the summons. Pullman frowned a little, but said nothing.

METHODIST LAYMEN WIN THEIR FIGHT

GENERAL CONFERENCE GRANTS THEIR DEMANDS.

Ministers and Pewholders Cheer the Victory of the Latter—Mrs. McMahan Withdraws Her Claim—Greeting to Delegates Extended by the Social Union.

Chicago, May 3.—By the unanimous vote of 507 delegates the Methodist general conference, which held its opening session yesterday morning in the Auditorium, perfected all the legislation establishing equal lay representation in that body, and actually seated the 151 provisional lay delegates elected in anticipation of this action. Mrs. Y. M. McMahan, who had played the part of a spectator for a week, was quietly eliminated without reopening the women question.

There were no objections, no opposition, and no debate on the merits of the question. Every parliamentary obstacle was deftly removed, and a transaction that will live in history as the greatest voluntary relinquishment of power ever made by a religious body was effected in two hours, absolutely without a hitch.

Men of High Character.

The proceedings established at once the high character of the conference. Its members are among the most successful church leaders of the country. They are men with high foreheads, gentle voices and bright eyes. They observe parliamentary usage and display the highest parliamentary skill. They are conservative men, wise men, modern men, and men of infinite nerve and energy. If they do not distinguish themselves throughout the month by their prudence, their pious spirit and the loftiness of their aims it will be astonishing.

Dr. Buckley a Leader.

The smooth and rapid progress of the work was largely due to the Rev. Dr. J. M. Buckley, the editor of the New York Christian Advocate, who for years has been a leading figure in the body. His mind is of the chain-lightning order, and by his audacity, his wit, and his parliamentary tact he almost dictates the action of the body, and generally for its good.

Laymen Are Jubilant.

How the laymen feel at the success of the measure yesterday is evident from this comment of Judge Horton's last evening: "It is the most remarkable thing in the religious history of the world, in my opinion. No one could have believed that a unanimous vote for the measure would be secured. Best of all is the sympathetic spirit in which the ministers have met our advances. What they have done has knitted the classes of the church more firmly together than ever, and will, in a thousand ways, work for good."

Reception Last Evening.

Five thousand persons attended the reception given under the auspices of the Chicago Methodist social union in the evening. The singing was led by Bishop McCabe. Addresses of welcome were made by John Farson, president of the social union; City Prosecutor Howard S. Taylor, speaking for Mayor Harrison; Rev. J. P. Brushingham and Judge Burke. The responses were made by Bishop Merrill and John E. James and Bishop McCabe. Dr. David H. Moore and Dr. J. M. Buckley of New York made short speeches.

CANADA'S MILITIA ORDERED TO ARMS

FENIAN ATTACK ON RAILWAYS HAS BEEN PLANNED.

Troops Will be in Readiness to Oppose Any Attempt at Invasion—Demonstration Will be Made to Restrict Any Raids Under Probable Contemplation.

Detroit, Mich., May 3.—[Special Telegram]—Stories of a Fenian invasion of Canada, which have been plentiful for some time, especially since the dynamiting at the Welland canal, have all along been mistrusted by the Canadian military authorities, but today an order was received from Ottawa by Colonel Holmes, commanding the London district to have troops in readiness to oppose any attempt at invasion.

The London district embraces Windsor and the militia across the river have been ordered to be ready to concentrate at company headquarters at an hour's notice.

The Ottawa order says that information has been received of the possibility of an attempt on the part of a raiding party to cross either the St. Croix or Detroit rivers and endeavor to destroy some portion of the railway systems connecting Sarnia and London or the Windsor-Chatham-London railway.

Some of the Windsor military authorities say that the order is only a bluff. It is believed, however, that the proposed demonstration will be made with a view not only to having the troops along the frontier in good condition to cope with an emergency, but with the belief that it will have the effect of restraining any invasion that may have been contemplated.

PACIFIC STATES SAFE REPUBLICAN

Henry C. Payne Returns From a Trip and Feels Confident of His Party's Success.

Milwaukee, May 3.—Henry C. Payne returned from an extended trip to the Pacific coast yesterday. Mr. Payne says the political situation on the Pacific slope was very encouraging for the republican party. The Pacific states he regarded as safely republican as Wisconsin. The people out there he said are expansionists and in accord with the policy of the administration.

Speaking of the conditions in the West Mr. Payne said he never knew business to be so good or people in better spirits. There were to be seen no signs of overproduction or overtrading in the West.

On the subject of state politics Mr. Payne did not care to talk, as he had been so long absent from the state. He did say, however, that the republican party in Wisconsin needed no boss. The masses of the party could be depended on to do the right thing at all times. The campaign this fall, he said, would be like that of four years ago—a campaign of education. The contest would be between McKinley and Bryan. He had only sorrow to express for Admiral Dewey in his political aspirations, as he would be no factor in the campaign.

WILL TEST THE FAIR BRIDGES

This Precaution Decided On by Paris Exposition Officials.

Paris, May 2.—One result of Sunday's accident is that all bridges in the exposition grounds are to be tested tonight. After the gates have been closed they will be subjected to double the maximum weight to which they may be exposed at any time.

There must be several hundreds of bridges of different kinds throughout the exposition. They are constructed for the most part of wood and iron, but in some cases they are only stucco with iron supports.

The exposition grounds, being situated in the heart of the city, extend across many streets where traffic cannot be interfered with. Thus wooden bridges have been erected on each side of the river at frequent intervals. These structures look strong enough to bear any weight. The same can be said of the iron bridges, especially of that which crosses the Seine from "Old Paris" to the Transportation building. In fact, every bridge for which the exposition authorities are directly responsible may be said to be perfectly safe. In the "Midway" part of the exposition this is possibly not so true. Light and airy bridges of plaster, staff and stucco, are to be seen everywhere, and though no doubt equally safe, the exposition authorities are worried, lest there should be another accident. The architect of the exposition said this morning: "To-night's test is meant mainly to reassure and calm the public mind. The only bridge that was not absolutely safe was that which collapsed Sunday."

Mrs. R. J. ROGAN and children of Waukesha arrived in the city last evening and will spend the summer with her mother.

WILL HARTER has purchased Iowan's restaurant of Claude Iowan, the transfer taking place yesterday afternoon.

TO BE BURIED IN BUDAPEST

Munkacsy to Sleep at Hungary's Ancient Capital.

Bonn, May 3.—Michael Munkacsy, the celebrated painter, will be buried at Budapest.

The real name of the great painter was Michael Lieb. This he changed to Michael von Munkacsy, from the little Hungarian village of Munkacs, where he was born on October 10, 1846. Munkacsy was a carpenter before he became a painter. His parents were very poor, and the artist had to work with all his soul to attain anything like prominence. His pictures are not what is described as fine art by the best critics, but they are known widely and the masses in many lands and climes have seen them and admired them. Munkacsy has been universally known as a painter for twenty-five years. In 1870 he exhibited in the Paris Salon the first painting he felt was worthy of his genius. It was the now celebrated picture, "The Last Day of a Condemned Prisoner." Although severely condemned by the critics of all countries and of every city, the Magyar carpenter made the world talk about him and his work. His reason was that he was a few years ago.

WARDEN FISHER MADE BIG CAPTURE

Secures Net From Illegal Fishermen Near Prairie du Chien—Net Was Being Hauled in by Team.

Special Deputy State Game Warden S. D. Fisher of Brodhead arrived in Janesville yesterday from Prairie du Chien where he made the capture of a fish seine two thousand feet in length and eighteen feet in depth. The seine was valued at $150.

Complaint had been made to the state game authorities at Madison that two parties were seizing the Mississippi river near Prairie du Chien and that they were catching fish in thousand pound hauls. Deputy Fisher hastened to the scene and as he approached the river bank the guilty parties were just about to haul in the mammoth seine with the aid of a team of horses. The guilty fisherman at once jumped into a boat and rowing to the Iowa state side made good their escape.

Warrants are now out for their arrest. The net was sent to Madison and burned. It is said that these same parties pulled out of one Wisconsin lake 18,000 pounds of fish and then made their escape.

MINOR GOT THE NOMINATION AGAIN

Eighth District Fight Ends to the Satisfaction of All Good Republicans.

Appleton, Wis., May 3.—[Special Telegram]—Upon resuming of the Eighth district congressional convention this morning E. H. Ram, chairman of the Waupaca county delegation rose and announced that W. H. Hatten had withdrawn his name from consideration by the convention. There were cheers and the ninety-sixth ballot proceeded. Brown, Door and Kewaunee counties voted solidly for Minor and when Portage gave Minor two votes there was a murmur which was checked by the chairman. Then Waupaca turned in five votes for Minor and secured his nomination.

Prof. D. D. Mayne will lead the prayer meeting of the Young People's society at the Congregational church to night at the close of the business meeting.

AMERICAN LOSSES HEAVY AT CATUBIG

Heroic Defense of the Small Garrison in a Church Building.

Insurgents Chiefs Believe That Their Leader Has Suffered Death in Some Form.

AGUINALDO IS MISSING

General Otis Feels Confident

Manila, May 3.—Twenty American soldiers were killed at Catubig, Island of Samar, after a heroic defense of the garrison. The defending force numbered only thirty men. The survivors rested for five days before reinforcements arrived.

To offset this disaster comes news that the insurgent leaders believe Aguinaldo to be dead. They fear that he has been killed by the Igorottes. General Tinio has given up hope that his chief still lives. Friends of Aguinaldo's wife assert that she has heard nothing from him since they parted. She is nearly prostrated with worry and therefore has not been informed of the death of her child which she thinks is with friends at Bacoor.

Fought in a Church.

The American garrison at Catubig where the twenty men were lost, consisted of thirty men of the Forty-third regiment. The Americans were quartered in the Catubig church, which the enemy, numbering several hundred men, surrounded and fiercely attacked. The Americans fought for two days and then the rebels managed to ignite the roof of the church and it burned away and finally fell upon those inside the edifice. The walls remained intact however, and were used as shelter by besieged Americans for three days longer, the enemy attacking the building on all sides at once.

Attacking Force Suffers Heavily.

The Americans continued firing from the windows and doors of the church, and did great execution among the Filipinos. It is estimated that over two hundred of the natives were killed, many dead bodies being removed from the scene of the fighting. After five days' resistance by the Americans a lieutenant and eight men arrived from Laoan and engaged the besiegers, who retired.

The timely arrival of these reinforcements prevented the annihilations of the Americans entrenched in the church, who had repeatedly declined to surrender when ordered to do so by the Filipinos.

Encouraged the Filipinos.

The ten survivors were without food, had little ammunition, and were physically exhausted when relieved.

The fight has encouraged the Philippine, who are acting in an aggressive manner and threatening that section of the coast, particularly the Town of Catama, whence the garrison will probably be withdrawn to Laoan.

General Funston has discovered a rebel warehouse near Cabanatuan, Province of New Egiia, containing all the archives of the Malolos government. Aguinaldo's correspondence up to the time of his flight, had much valuable historical matter.

General Otis Feels Confident.

Manila, May 3.—General Otis will probably start for home at the end of the current week. The transport Meade is here awaiting his orders. In view of his near departure Gen. Otis last night consented to talk for publication. He said:

"You know I am rather pessimistic. I am not inclined to take the sanguine view prevailing in certain quarters, yet I have held the opinion for some time that the thing is entirely over. I cannot see where it is possible for the guerrillas in any force, or accomplish anything serious. We have 116 posts north of Manila, and 94 south of the city. Everywhere the people are giving valuable information, and are almost daily disclosing hidden arms and other insurgent property."

CALLS ON SALISBURY.

Korean Ambassador to American Desires to Be Placed in British Navy.

London, May 3.—The Korean Ambassador to the United States, who is at present in London, on his way to Paris, Vienna and St. Petersburg, called on Lord Salisbury today. It is said that his excellency is anxious to get his younger son into the navy. Admiral Dewey, it is understood, promised to take the young man into the United States naval service, but he expressed a preference to be identified with the British navy. Exceptions to the rule that only British subjects are admitted to the imperial navy are rarely made, therefore it is doubtful if the lad's desire will be gratified. The admiralty sanctioned the last exception of this kind in favor of the brother of the king of Siam.

Leaps from Brooklyn Bridge.
New York, May 3.—Another leap from the Brooklyn bridge into the East river and perhaps to death, was made here by Edward M. Bryant. He did it at the behest of a newspaper in Park row, which published the full details simultaneously with the daring descent. Bryant was a conductor in the employ of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company, but lost his position. He braved the air with a parachute for a money consideration. It is said, to give the paper the story. The parachute failed to work, and Bryant, though rescued, is not expected to live.

"Mary, how do you like the Ivory Soap?"

"Best we have ever had, ma'am. The starched clothes are whiter and the flannels are softer than when washed with common soaps. It saves my hands; they used to be very sore after a wash."

"Well, Mary, I am told that it saves the clothes, too, and you shall have only Ivory Soap after this."

Those who have tried both common soap and Ivory Soap, say that it takes only two-thirds as much of the Ivory for a wash.

GIVE US IMPROVEMENTS.

The question of what is best to do in the matter of lighting the city during the next three years is purely a business topic and there is no reason why it should not be discussed as such. Billingsgate has no bearing upon the subject, but of course if the advocates of the present extravagant expenditure cannot present a business argument, then billingsgate is their only resource. The clipping published in another column appears to be a fair summing up of the other side of the matter but we doubt if it will carry conviction. The fact that the writer advocates "lower taxation" in case of the police and all other departments, but would disregard the interests of the city in the lighting department would indicate some "frivolous connection," not in the interest of the taxpayer, but in the interest of grinding an axe.

The following amounts were raised by the people last year for city purposes:

School fund.....	$23,000
General fund.....	15,000
Lighting fund.....	22,000
Fire and water fund.....	8,500
Judgment fund.....	6,000
Bonded debt fund.....	4,875
Library fund.....	3,000
Police department (cost).....	2,820
Bridge fund.....	2,500

The ward funds raised were as follows:

First ward.....	$9,000
Second ward.....	1,500
Third ward.....	3,000
Fourth ward.....	2,500
Fifth ward.....	2,000

Take $3,000 from the lighting fund, add it to the bonded debt fund, and we can have a $100,000 bond issue, $25,000 of which can be used to build a city hall and library building and $75,000 to start the sewerage system that everyone admits is sadly needed. Take two or three thousand dollars more from the lighting fund, add it to the police fund, and we can have a police force as efficient in comparison, as the fire department, with officers on duty night and day. After these changes are made, we will still be able to pay for from 50 to 75 arc lights for the business streets and railway crossings, and enough smaller lights for the residence districts. From $6,000 to $8,000 would still remain in the lighting fund, and if it were judiciously spent, would light the city, brilliantly—not extravagantly in patches, but sufficiently all over.

The Gazette Printing Company and other patrons of the Janesville Electric company, buy electric current for both power and lights through a meter. The electric company represented that the meter would be found accurate and satisfactory and The Gazette has found the representation truthful. If the meter system is all right for private enterprises, why is it not all right for the city? What possible objection can there be to the plan? A 1200 candle power lamp, for instance, cannot possibly use more than 1200 candle power in volts and amperes. If it uses less, the city should pay for less. The unit of computation for electric current is the kilowatt and a certain number of kilowatts are necessary to give 1200 candle power. Why should not the contract be drawn for lights of 1200 candle power at a stated price per kilowatt? Is there anything unfair about this proposition? Why should anyone object to it? If the lights now in use are 1200 candle power lights the meter system will not do the contractor an injustice. If they are less they should not be paid for at the 1200 candle power price.

Out the appropriation down to a reasonable sum and invest the saving in a police department that needs no apologist or whitewash; a city hall and library building that will be a credit to the town; and start the sewerage system that will be a safeguard to public health.

"Are the citizens of Janesville to go without the comforts of a city" in order to swell the $72,000 they have paid for lights in six years, "or the mutterings of a few big property holders? Not much!"

Let us have modern improvements at all times, but especially when they can be had WITHOUT SPENDING ONE CENT MORE THAN WE ARE SPENDING TODAY.

The Recorder must have a good opinion of the electric lights when it says "The Gazette favors having the city in darkness." The Gazette favors an expenditure of from $8,000 to $9,000 a year for lights—say from 50 to 75 arc lamps, and the balance, gas, gasoline, Welsbach or incandescent. The Recorder either doesn't care what it says or else it thinks electric lighting is a failure.

"THE OLD MAIL."

Janesville Recorder—The dear old Gazette has once more emerged from its its swaddling clothes and jumped aboard the lighting wire with its usual tomfoolery cries aloud.

Why is the dear old mother Gazette so anxious about the lighting. Perhaps it is because of a little frivolous connection here and there, or somewhere close at hand.

A few years ago, cries the Gazette, the lighting fund was $2,300 while today it is $12,000. Why, bless the Gazette's heart, not so many years ago the city of Chicago was an Indian trading post and today it is a city of 2,000,000 inhabitants.

Suppose the lighting is costing $12,000. What of it? Are the citizens of Janesville to go without the comforts of a city on account of the Gazette's spasms or the mutters of a few big property holders? Not much.

The Gazette wants the city left in darkness and extra policemen put to work to do nothing but draw pay. The old mother says it is a waste of money to put arc lights on streets shaded by trees. Did mortal man ever hear such baby rot? The Gazette wants smaller lights, thereby getting down to its relationship in a quiet but, perhaps, orderly manner. Then it wants a meter to gauge the light; another case of water on the brain. During the past six years, says the Gazette, the city has paid $72,000 for lights. What has the city paid for streets and where are the streets? Forty fortunes have been thrown away on street building, but Janesville, for the number of arc lights given, has been cheapest lighted city in the country.

The Gazette will please make its next statement.

The fact that "forty fortunes have been thrown away on street building" in the past does not justify the throwing away of any more money for extravagant street lighting. The street work system has been changed for the better, and the lighting, police, city building and other departments should also be reorganized and placed on a business basis.

Who would think there was insanity behind a drop of water? But there is. It was a favorite torture in the old days to fasten the victim where water should slowly drip on his forehead. In a little while he was a howling maniac.

Women do not, as a rule, realize how the steady drains which sometimes afflict them must at last react on the mind. Sometimes, it is only fretfulness, irritability or nervousness. At other times the condition passes beyond unreasonable to irrationality.

With the relief of the body, from disease, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription gives also a cheerful mind and contented spirit. When the drains and pains are stopped the mind soars up like a balloon from which dead weight has been cast out. Mothers who never knew a happy moment when the birth hour confronted them, and younger women doomed each month to a period of mental depression as well as physical suffering, have found a perfect cure by the use of "Favorite Prescription." It contains no alcohol, neither opium cocaine or other form of narcotic.

"I suffered with female weakness about eight years—tried several doctors but derived no benefit until I began using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. John Green, of Janesville, Wyo. Co., Ky. "This medicine was recommended to me by other patients. I have taken six bottles and I feel like another person."

"I took your medicine six months and feel now like a new person," writes Miss Annie Stephens, of Belleville, Wood Co., W. Va. "Have no headache, no backache, no pain anywhere. I took seven bottles of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and seven bottles of his 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I think there is no medicine like Doctor Pierce's. I can't speak highly enough of your medicine for it has done me so much good. I don't feel tired as I used to, nor sick. I feel well and think there is no medicine equal to Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription."

ARBOR DAY IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Proclamation by Gov. Scofield Fixes it for Tomorrow May 4

HAS BECOME A CUSTOM

Janesville Public School Children and Teachers Will Observe the Day.

GOOD PROGRAMS PREPARED

ARBOR AND BIRD DAY

A Proclamation by the Governor of Wisconsin

By legislative enactment the governor is authorized to set apart one day in the year to be known as Arbor or Bird Day. The beneficent results are everywhere apparent. Not only are the school grounds and public parks to the state being made attractive by tree planting, and a deep interest in the preservation of our song birds being awakened among the young, but there is coming to be, among the people of the state generally, a clearer understanding of the economic value of forest and bird preservation.

In order that this interest in the forest and birds may be maintained, I, Edward Scofield, Governor of Wisconsin, by the authority vested in me by the legislature, do hereby set apart and designate:

Friday, May 4 as Arbor and Bird Day.

It is highly desirable that all of the public schools and places of learning generally throughout the state, do, upon that day, hold appropriate exercises to the end that the young may grow into an intelligent appreciation of those attractions with which nature has endowed our state, and come to discern the close relation existing between beauty and usefulness. Let an effort be made on that day to add in some degree to the attractiveness of school grounds and public parks, and to impart to the little children, especially, a love for birds.

EDWARD SCOFIELD,
Governor.

The annual observance of Arbor and Bird Day in the public schools has become a fixed custom, and should be productive of most excellent results. It is hoped that teachers this year will make a special effort to call the attention of pupils and parents to the lessons of the day and that the interest awakened in the beautifying of school grounds may be extended, and result in the planting of trees, shrubs, vines and flowers, and better care of grounds about the homes of the children.

Wisconsin Audubon Societies.

The interest shown by Wisconsin children in the Audubon Society has been so great and the work among them has shown so many possibilities of usefulness, that the energy of the executive officers of that society for the past year, has been almost absorbed in directing it. They feel that they can perform no more important office, and none which has in it more promise of far-reaching good, than to establish and encourage among the child population of the state a spirit of appreciation and protecting love toward native birds and incidentally toward everything in nature that is beautiful and harmless. The school membership, which includes teachers as well as children, has grown upwards of ten thousand, there being three hundred and eighty branches.

The Spring Call
Listen, little children!
Maybe you will hear
Voices calling, calling,
Calling sweet and clear:
"Come! purple crocuses!
Rouse from slumber! deep!
Mayflowers! rosy mayflowers!
Wake up out of sleep!"

"Tis the sunbeam army,
At the sun's command,
In their golden armor,
Marching through the land.
Tomorrow is Arbor Day

According to the proclamation of Governor Scofield as above, tomorrow is Arbor and Bird day, and the public schools of Janesville, under the direction of Superintendent Mayne, who is an enthusiast in the teachings and purposes of the day, have prepared programs to properly commemorate and carry out the idea of the governor and legislature of the Badger State.

Adams School Program

The Arbor day exercises of the Adams school will be held on the bluff belonging to Mrs. J. J. R. Pease, between Prospect avenue and Pease Court, at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. Pupils will meet at the school building and march to the bluff. Visitors are cordially invited. The following program will be presented:

At the High school building the morning will be devoted to the usual studies. In the afternoon there will be no school as the High school scholars will indulge in an athletic contest at the fair grounds. A good program has been prepared at all the grade schools and tree planting will take place.

THE CANAL BILL IS PASSED.

House Decides in Favor of the Nicaragua Route.

Washington, May 3.—By the decisive vote of 225 to 35 the house Wednesday passed the Nicaragua canal bill, after the stormiest debate of this session of the fifty-sixth congress.

CLOSING THE CANAL DEBATE.

Party Lines Seem to Be in an Extent Obiterated in the Discussion.

Washington, D. C., May 3.—Immediately after the consideration of the morning business the consideration of the Hepburn Nicaragua canal bill was resumed by the house in committee of the whole, and Congressman Mann of Chicago was the first speaker. He favored absolute government control and fortifications.

Mr. Hepburn offered the amendments of the committee substituting the word "protect" for defend and the words "provision for defense" instead of fortifications for defense.

Mr. Hepburn, opening the debate, said it was now almost exactly fifty-four years since the project of an interoceanic canal was first broached, but this was the first day a bill to carry such a project into effect had received the attention of the house of representatives. He reviewed the whole history of the canal project, and said the reports were practically unanimous in favor of the Nicaraguan route.

Speaking of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, he declared amid a general outburst of applause that the interests of the Americans in the canal had become so great that they would refuse to be bound with a barrier imposed by another generation half a century ago.

"I want," said he, "and I think the American people want an American canal, which can if necessary discriminate in favor of our own people, giving our commerce the advantage over the commerce of other countries. (Applause.) We are entering upon the most intense contest in the history of time, and it is the intention of the American people that they shall have their full share of the world's commerce. (Renewed applause.)"

"I want the canal, when completed, under our control. I do not want our hands tied before we enter the contest."

"And," he went on, "if the house of representatives by an overwhelming vote declares the policy of the American people to be for an American canal, untrammelled by entangling alliances, no one in the United States will dare say nay. (Applause.)"

"I do not think there is a disposition by the administration to thwart the will of the American people." (Applause.)

"If it is not the intention to press the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, why is it not withdrawn?" asked Mr. Clark.

"We must not stop now for fear of something in the future," replied Mr. Hepburn.

"If you will put that word 'fortify' back in the bill it will have the unanimous vote of this side," said Mr. Clark.

"I do not think we change the committee consented to make in the interests of harmony, as we supposed, make any radical difference in the bill," responded Mr. Hepburn.

"Do you think the Clayton-Bulwer treaty can be abrogated by an act of congress?" asked Mr. Dolliver.

"No doubt it would be better were the abrogation to be arranged through the state department, but I entertain no doubt of our power to abrogate it by legislation inconsistent with its continuance," said Mr. Hepburn.

Mr. Shackelford, who made the minority report in favor of an additional section providing that the canal should not be built if the Hay-Pauncefote treaty were ratified, said no ex-facto Monroe doctrine.

Mr. Lovering and Mr. Ransdell argued for the immediate construction of a canal, and were followed by Mr. Fletcher in opposition.

Mr. Corliss insisted that it should be strictly an American canal, and that there was no occasion for delay.

Mr. Hitt opposed the bill on account of the provision for the construction of the canal after obtaining from Nicaragua and Costa Rica full control over the territory through which it passed. The provision, he said, was in contravention of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, which he maintained was in force.

Sundry Bill Carries $61,586,715.

Washington, May 3.—The sundry civil appropriation bill, the most important of the general supply bills, and the last on the list, was completed by the committee on appropriations and reported by Chairman Cannon to the house. It carries $61,586,715, being $8,455,992 less than the estimates, and $9,709,146 more than the appropriations for the current fiscal year. In addition to the amounts carried by the bill, contracts are authorized amounting to $4,437,500, including $3,275,000 for public buildings.

Orangeine

The Secret of Its Charm.

A Chicago physician, too prominent to name, says: "The charm of your prescription, which I anticipated from its skillful formula, and which has been steadily shown, during several months' use by myself and my patients, is that an 'Orangeine' powder taken when needed to relieve exhaustion or pain, keeps the system free from disease attack. It also normally regulates stomach and liver and insures just the right action for continued good health."

The United States Health Reports states editorially: "We extend to 'Orangeine' our full endorsement."

Mr. Charles Frohman writes: "I have placed 'Orangeine' in all my theaters because of its great usefulness in quickly relieving pain, exhaustion and sudden disposition."

The Blues.

Weak or worn-out nerves and an exhausted and irritable condition of the brain are at the bottom of all head troubles, such as dullness, pressure, rush of blood to the head, dizziness, headache, irritability of temper; the blues, poor memory, hysteria, melancholy, mania and insanity, no matter what the special cause that brought them about. A medicine that will strengthen and invigorate the shattered nerves, rest the weary body and soothe the tired brain is greatly to be desired. Such a medicine is Dr. Miles' Nervine. It is a nerve food and tonic that acts directly on the nervous system, toning it up into sound and vigorous action.

"I was troubled for years with severe spells of headache in the back part of my head, confusion of memory, nervousness and inability to sleep. After trying in vain to find relief I got the blues and at times thought I was losing my mind. When I began taking Dr. Miles' Nervine and Nerve and Liver Pills all this was changed. I grew cheerful and happy and my health soon returned."
